Sri H. M. CHANNABASAPPA.—Detailed investigations have been ordered and in order of priority the Investigation Circle will investigate all the projects under the Cauvery basin of which Surarnavathi Project is one.

Sri U. M. MADAPPA.—May I know whether, according to preliminary forecast this project is feasible and a remunerative one?

Sri H. M. CHANNABASAPPA.—Feasibility or otherwise of this project can be known only after the investigation is over.

Sri U. M. MADAPPA.—Will the Government take immediate steps to see that investigations are completed before finalising the Third Five-Year Plan?

Sri H. M. CHANNABASAPPA.—I have already said that the question of giving priority to the Cauvery basin projects is being considered in view of the fact that 45,000 M. Cft. of water has to be used for 1,10,000 acres as contemplated under the 1924 Agreement between Madras and Mysore.
